Did you know that there are many benefits that we can enjoy from just being thankful? Allow me to share just a few of them that I found from www.forbes.com. Feel free to go online and read the article in it's entirety... 7 Scientifically Proven Benefits Of Gratitude That Will Motivate You To Give Thanks Year-Round...

- ✓ Gratitude opens the door to more relationships.
- ✓ Gratitude improves physical health.
- ✓ Gratitude improves psychological health.
- ✓ Gratitude enhances empathy and reduces aggression.
- ✓ Grateful people sleep better.
- ✓ Gratitude improves self-esteem.
- ✓ Gratitude increases mental strength.

There are lots of benefits of being thankful to God, ourselves and to others. Researchers have found that expressing gratitude improves how we feel, makes us more likely to do positive things, improves relationships, and is even related to better sleep.

We tend to get caught up in all of our problems and frustrations. These are the things that can cause us to worry and keep us up at night. Change that. Find some ways to be more grateful during this holiday season. Here's a practical list to express your thankfulness.. SMILE and tell someone "thank you" before you go to bed.

Give a bigger tip than usual

Write a thank you note to someone

Pray for the sole purpose of expressing thanks
Replace frustrations with thoughts of gratitude for something.

Serve as a volunteer delivery person at the Annual Community Thanksgiving Meal next week on Thanksgiving Day.

Taking Care Of The Temple Of The Holy Spirit

“Mini Mushroom and Sausage Quiches”

Gluten Free Recipe from www.eatingwell.com

These crust-less mini quiches are like portable omelets. Turkey sausage and sautéed mushrooms keep them light and savory. Small and satisfying, they're also a good finer food for your next gathering.

Ingredients

- 8 ounces turkey breakfast sausage. Removed from casing and crumbled into small pieces
- 1 teaspoon extra-virgin olive oil
- 8 ounces mushrooms, sliced
- ¼ cup sliced scallions
- ¼ cup of shredded Swiss cheese
- 1 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
- 5 eggs
- 3 egg whites
- 1 cup 1% milk

Directions

1. Position rack in the center of oven; preheat to 325 degrees F. Coat a nonstick muffin tin generously with cooking spray.
2. Heat a large skillet over medium,-high heat. Add sausage and cook until golden brown, 6 to 8 minutes. Transfer to a bowl to cool. Add oil to the pan. Add mushrooms and cook, stirring often, until golden brown, 5 to 7 minutes. Transfer mushrooms to the bowl with the sausage. Let cool for 5 minutes. Stir in scallions, cheese and pepper.
3. Whisk eggs, egg whites and milk in a medium bowl. Divide the egg mixture evenly among the prepared muffin cups. Sprinkle with a heaping Tablespoon of the sausage mixture into each cup.
4. Bake until the tops are beginning to brown, 25 minutes. Let cool on a wire rack for 5 minutes. Place a rack on top of the pan, flip it over and turn the quiches out onto the rack. Turn upright and let cool completely.

Prophetic Dreams - by Nancy Stacey

Hi Dear Friends! We only have one more dreams class this year, so take some time to join us next Wednesday evening the 29th as we conclude the class.

Allison Allen's parents are visiting for a few weeks and they blessed us by being in our class last week. Bill and Jean Myers are gifted with dreams and dreams interpretations. They have taken classes from John Paul Jackson and worked toward becoming certified dreams interpreters. Do you have a dream you would like them to help you with during our class? Feel free to do so.

This Wednesday night at 6:45, we will look at the work of God in Reinhard Bonnke's life. God called this famous, fiery German evangelist to serve in the land of Africa by speaking to him in a dream!!! Mr. Bonnke dreamed the same dream four consecutive nights in 1972.

In his dream, he saw the continent of Africa being splashed with the blood of Jesus and he heard in the dream, "Africa shall be saved." In his autobiography, Living a Life of Fire, on page 236, he writes how he acted in faith on the direction in the dream. "Whenever God spoke to me, even as a child, I made my mind fit His words, not the other way around." He determined

he would begin to speak by faith that

Africa would be saved.

He chose to obey the leading of the Lord and millions have come to the Lord through his ministry,

Christ

for all Nations.

Reverend

Bonnke will be retiring soon and

Daniel Kolenda will serve

Reinhard's ministry.

"Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife; And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS."

Matthew 1:24-25 (KJV)
