Let's pray!

This week's Covenant Connection is devoted to the subject of prayer. Saturday, we will have our 4th annual prayer workshop! You are invited to join me. Please pray for the following requests on behalf of our nation.

Spiritual awakening on college campuses. Today's younger generation is biblically illiterate, spiritually clueless, largely fatherless, saturated in porn and skeptical of church and most preachers. That's a pretty bleak scenario, but the Bible says "where sin increased, grace abounded all the more" (Rom. 5:20). When the hippies of the 1960s embraced drugs, sex and rock and roll, God unleashed the Jesus Movement—and it marked a generation for Christ. He can do it again. Let's pray that this time it will also touch all of the students on our U.S. campuses today!

Transformation of our inner cities. Some urban neighborhoods in the U.S. resemble bombed-out cities in the Third World. The devil thinks he owns these places, but God is empowering Nehemiah's to reclaim and rebuild the ruins. Let's expect this miracle to happen, churches, especially those that have renounced legalistic religiosity. Let's expect to hear good things coming out of Detroit, Miami, Atlanta, Tallahassee, Dothan, Valdosta, Albany, New Orleans, Los Angeles, Dallas, and Boston to name a few.

A wave of repentance among Christian men. So many churchgoing men today are bound by regret, sexual sin, fatherlessness and the shame of divorce. Praise God, He has promised to restore the hearts of fathers to their children and children to fathers (Mal. 4:6). Any true revival will be accompanied by widespread restoration of families. As fathers are restored, they will be equipped to be mentors to a broken and healing generation.

An unleashing of courage and compassion among Christian women. The biblical story of Deborah teaches that when times get tough, God often raises up brave women to meet the challenge. This has happened before in American history, when women affiliated with the Holiness Movement in the early 1900s challenged rampant alcoholism in order to protect families. In this decade Let's expect to see the greatest mobilization of women in history—both to fight social injustice at home and also to engage in aggressive mission work overseas.

A Holy Spirit visitation inside the U.S. military. The threat of international terrorism is real, and evil forces are more aggressive. That's why I've been asking God to mercifully touch all branches of our armed forces. We need people of faith on the front lines. We need generals and soldiers who fear God and pray. Arguments about separation of church and state seem silly when nuclear bombs are being aimed at us. We need leaders like Hezekiah, who put his faith in God when foreign armies attacked!

I hope that you'll lift these serious needs in our country as we pray for all 7 Mountains of our culture.

Church Transportation Ministry

We need volunteer drivers to help transport our church family to and from our Sunday services! See Pastor Dave if you're interested.
