God is good!

During the past week I had plenty of time to reflect on how good God really is. With my cup of coffee in hand, I found myself looking out over our upper level balcony, across the well groomed grounds and out towards the beach. I could hear the waves crashing on the shoreline and through the morning fog, see sunlight trying to break through the dark clouds. I marveled at how much God loves to reveal Himself through His creation. Sipping my coffee, I began to thank the Lord for giving us the much needed break from our very fast paced lifestyle here at home. I felt a real sense of God's presence in that moment and once again appreciated the place of prayer and how it connects us to a living God who really cares about us.

The common question we've been asked since our return is, did we get to rest? With a resounding YES!, we rested. In fact, that seems to be all that we did for nearly a solid week. In that place of rest I enjoyed the peace and solitude of His presence. We had a great time with our friends. We prayed together, ate, and shopped when we weren't at the beach. Having godly friends who love Jesus is so valuable.

I started out by captioning this column with "God is good". I can give you a million reasons to show you why He's good. He has given us His Word. With His Word, we can know what's on His mind and heart. I like what Jesus says in Matthew 6:34(NKJV)...

God wants each of us to live in the moment. He's blessed us with today. When we decide to fill our day with the Lord by including Him in our decision making and being consciously aware that He is partnering with us, we can have true peace and enjoy the moment of each day. Opportunities will be there to be a blessing to someone in need as we take each moment to spend with Him. God is good!
