From the Desk of Pastor Dave

While the 2020 election remains unresolved as of the writing of this article, I want to encourage you to remain focused on what the Lord is doing. It's easy to become distracted with all of the political drama. I want to encourage you to continue to pray, fast, and declare what the Lord is saying for our nation during this time. Numerous prophets continue to stand in unity declaring that we are about to see one of the largest political upsets in American history. This is a season of exposure. Investigations and court battles are taking place to ensure that free and fair elections take place that are in keeping with the rule of law. It appears that this is what is in jeopardy. While all of this is taking place, I believe that the Church must not get caught up in the emotion of the day through media frenzy; we must not lose sight of the Kingdom of God. When we do our best, God will certainly do the rest. Once you've voted, prayed and fasted, then stand and leave the rest to God. Trust Him and know that He's working and responding to our position of legislation.

I mentioned a moment ago about exposure. I believe that God is not only bringing into light all of the election fraud, corruption and shenanigans, but He's also exposing hearts, and wrong motives within the Body of Christ. We must remember to walk by faith, humbly, in love and before the Lord. This by no means is easy. Let's be careful how we conduct ourselves to not nit-pick non essential things.

The Bible contains absolutes in regards to how a yielded follower of Christ is to behave. I invite you to refresh your memory in Galatians 5:22-23.

Opportunities will be coming our way to advance the Kingdom of God in ways we've never seen. I believe that things are about to ramp up and bring a heightened level of the supernatural move of Holy Spirit. I have a question for consideration... how should we prepare for the next great awakening of Holy Spirit? My answer is this... let's remain humble, prayerful, and walk in love and expectation. I'm going to take every opportunity to walk in love and minister to people as the Lord directs. In short, I'm not only expecting God to bring great exposure and resolution to this ongoing election. I'm also expecting God to pour out His Spirit and move in our services and lives with signs, wonders, miracles and healings. This is a time when we need wisdom and revelation. May you join me in expecting the impossible, expecting the unthinkable, and expecting the miraculous. The best is yet to come. Let's thank God for answering our prayers.

VERSE OF THE WEEK

Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

-John 15:4 NKJV
