Mother's Day Tribute: "Peachy Moms"

Sunday, was Mother's Day, and on this special day, we honored all of our moms in attendance with a gift of freshly picked peaches from Barton's Peach Orchard in Barney, Georgia. The title of the sermon was "Godly Moms are PEACHY!". The acronym for the word peachy is as follows...

- P Positive
- E Energetic
- A Affectionate
- C Compassionate
- H Holy
- Y Yearning

Raising kids who love Jesus doesn't start with controlling their behavior. Raising kids who love Jesus starts with having godly parents. What we're talking about is parents having a prayer life and being transformed by Christ. All of this includes walking in the power of Holy Spirit, and having the love of God on display in their life which will make all the difference in the world for their children and family. Family mealtime prayer, family devotions with Bible reading, and disciplining in love are key ingredients to training children in the way that God would have them to be raised. Parents cannot afford to be afraid of hurting their children's feelings. So many parents would rather be their children's best friend than be a disciplinarian. They are robbing their kids of healthy emotional and spiritual development. So, godly moms are peachy! They are positive, and are a positive influence on their children. They are careful to use their words to edify and build them up. As parents our words really matter. Godly moms are energetic. They get their strength and energy from Holy Spirit. It's quite remarkable when we look at the life of a mom. She juggles schedules, a job, or home school education, doctors appointments, sports, dance lessons and all of the rest. Godly moms are affectionate. They give plenty of healthy physical touch and quality time with each of her children. Peachy moms are also compassionate. She understands that this virtue is vital to raising godly children. Godly moms are holy and alive in Christ! They know that having a relationship with Jesus is the key to living a spirit filled life and raising spirit filled children. Legacy is important to peachy moms. Lastly, peachy moms are yearning. They desire their kids to walk in the destiny that God has for them. Time is invested in helping their children discover and understand their God given purpose.

1 John 4:7 says "Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God."
