-Holy Spirit power, peace and protection

Mental illness is real. So is mental health. I believe that one of the keys to a healthy mind is to fill our soul - mind, will and emotions with godly things. The Bible contains so many great truths to stand on when the enemy comes against you. The Apostle Paul hits the nail on the head with the following verse to the Church:

Philippians 4:8 AMP ⁸ “Finally, believers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable and worthy of respect, whatever is right and confirmed by God’s word, whatever is pure and wholesome, whatever is lovely and brings peace, whatever is admirable and of good repute; if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think continually on these things [center your mind on them, and implant them in your heart].” Our thought life matters. To combat fear, anxiety, depression or any other negative condition in our mind, we must use the Bible as a weapon and say what God says. Replacing ungodly thoughts with positive, godly ones is key to overcoming demonic attacks. I’m looking forward to revival, which I am convinced is on it’s way. The news anyone can receive. It’s transformative when a life is touched by the Spirit of God with the Gospel. As ambassadors of the Kingdom of God we must remember that revival is measured by the transformation of a life and the transformation of culture as a result of those transformed lives in Christ.

We’re talking about the power of transformation and the transforming power of the Gospel and Holy Spirit. To live a transformed life in Christ is to live a life yielded to Jesus Christ and led of His Holy Spirit. To be led of Holy Spirit we must fellowship with Him. We cannot separate transformation from a life lived in fellowship with God. Consider the following truths about Holy Spirit... 1) He is a dynamic person who lives inside our spirit. We were created by God to fellowship, or commune, with Him by talking with Him often. We must value and cultivate our friendship with Him in an intentional way. 2) God desires us to grow in intimacy with Him through the indwelling Spirit and share in the “family dynamics” of the Trinity. 3) God has opened His heart and family life to us so that we may have deep fellowship with Him. This is the essence of being a yielded follower of Christ. Paul exhorted us to walk in the Spirit, promising that, if we do so, we shall not end up yielding to the lustful desires of the flesh (see Galatians 5:16). Something that I think is really cool is that He guides us in ways that help us walk in holiness, have health in our soul and bodies. When we fellowship with Him this becomes possible. Take time this week to talk to Him, and give equal time to listening to Him. He will give you peace!

Consider what the Psalmist says ...

²³ “The steps of a [good and righteous] man are directed and established by the Lord, And He
