Let us anticipate the awakening blast of the shofar at Rosh Hashanah, a call to repent at Yom Kippur, and an opening as we rejoice and remember our covenant relationship with the Lord at Sukkot. This is a time of celebration and immersion!

The loud blast, a repentant heart, and a fresh anointing grab our attention so that we can refocus on our source of life, our Creator and Lord.

At Rosh Hashanah, the shofar blast is our battle cry of a triumphant year ahead.

“It shall come to pass, when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; then the wall of the city will fall down flat. And the people shall go up every man straight before him.”—Joshua 6:5

At Yom Kippur, when we repent, it is an act of turning away from our fleshly desires and toward the God who made us new.

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.”—2 Corinthians 5:17

At Sukkot, we rejoice as we reconnect with Yeshua, remembering our covenant relationship with Him, just as husband and wife celebrate their relationship.

“I will betroth you to Me forever; yes, I will betroth you to Me in righteousness and justice, in loving kindness and mercy...”—Hosea 2:19

With all of this, we can see why the Fall Feasts are a time of celebration and immersion—a time of being immersed into the power of your personal priesthood!
